If you frequently use browser favorites and want to use them no matter where you are or which computer you are using, OrganizeMyWeb is for you. With OrganizeMyWeb, you have your own home page to customize any number of web links arranged in pages, columns and topics. These links are available anywhere you have a web connection. Your time is valuable and OrganizeMyWeb will increase your productivity on the internet.

Start using OrganizeMyWeb and take your favorites everywhere!

Below is a sample screen that shows how your web links can be quickly organized and usable from anywhere:

The screenshot shows a web browser window titled "OrganizeMyWeb - Windows Internet Explorer provided by Kaczynski Software LLC". The page has a purple header with the "OrganizeMyWeb" logo and tagline "Take your favorites everywhere". Below the header is a navigation menu with links: "Main Page", "My Pages & Links", "My Options", "My Info", "Change Password", "Help", "Login", and the date "Sat, Jan 9, 2010". The main content area is divided into three columns:

- My Favorites
  - Personal Links
  - Work Links
- Entertainment
  - Netflix
  - ABC
  - NBC (The Office, 30 Rock)
  - CBS
- Sports
  - NFL (Packers)
  - MLB
  - ESPN
  - Fox Sports
  - NCAA

Below these columns is a "News & Weather" section with links to CNN and Weather (Chicago, New York, Arizona). The footer contains copyright information: "©2009-2010 Kaczynski Software LLC" and links for "Contact Us", "Privacy Policy", "About Us", and "KazLinks 1.2". The browser's address bar shows "Local intranet" and the zoom level is set to 100%.
